Message from the Exalted Ruler.....

We are in the last Quarter of the Lodge year and it is apparent the poor economy has effected our Lodge. We may have to make some cuts in our budget for the remainder of the year. We need our volunteers to help take up the slack, as things come up. We have quite a few events planned for February and we need your support for them. These events will support both the Lodge and our charities. In lean times It is easy to put these things aside , but remember our motto, “Elks care, Elks share...”

And as this is the last Quarter, It’s time to elect our corps of officers for 2010-2011. Nominations will be held the first meeting in February (Feb.2nd). Elections will be held at the second February meeting (Feb. 16th)

Clair & Sharon Miller have given notice they will be resigning as editors of our Gazette as of April 1st. If we have anyone out there who would like to volunteer for this important assignment please contact the office as soon as possible.

I would like to thank all of our hard-working volunteers who have so graciously helped keep things going. We couldn’t do without you!

See you at the Lodge!

Chuck Wilson, Exalted Ruler

NEW YEAR’S EVE GALA!

Congratulations to Coco De Carlo for hosting a spectacular New Year’s gala complete with a delicious sit-down prime rib dinner, top notch dance music, beautiful decorations and a fun raffle. We understand she not only came in under budget but this event was the most profitable dinner dance of 2009. Way to go, Coco!

We promised not to name names...but here are just a few of the folks enjoying themselves! (photos courtesy of Judi Dowd)

Join Your Fellow Citizens in Welcoming Home our Troops from Over Seas!

The Military Family Support Group has requested that the order of Elk's join them and other patriotic groups in traveling to local airports to welcome home our military personnel as they arrive home from overseas duty.

Placerville Lodge # 1712 veteran's service group is proud to get this ball rolling with a commitment from our Lodge members to attend this worthwhile endeavor.

The commitment is infrequent and car pooling can be set up by the Lodge. Anyone can attend these events so you can invite your family, friends and neighbors.

Won't you please join your Lodge in this very satisfying and patriotic duty? The veterans committee is compiling a data base of email addresses of interested members. You would be notified of any upcoming welcoming home events by email.

Please contact Jack Vranes: captjackv@att.net or Tom McCaffrey: tbmccaffrey@sbcglobal.net

Jack Vranes, Veterans Committee Chairman

ANOTHER IMPROMPTU DINNER SUCCESS!

The Impromptu Dinner on January 15th was a great success. Over 70 members attended with a sumptuous Hungarian chicken dinner, including the aforementioned Hungarian chicken, potatoes, salad (served family style), with a round of sourdough bread per table, vegetable and apple strudel. The vegetables were fresh, as was the salad and the apple strudel was baked right here in our Lodge kitchen. Julie and her kitchen helpers/servers provided a first class seated dining experience with the dulcet tones of our own DJ Ed Lawson during the social hour and for dancing after dinner. Margie Carrier provided libations for the occasion. It was great to see many of our Lodge members enjoying themselves. Look for the next Impromptu dinner so you won't miss out on a great event!

HATS OFF TO OUR HELPERS!

Once again, the office is presentable. Thanks to Carol Warf, Joni Lombard, Joanne Carpenter, Janie Nishimura, and Sharon White Fry.

Finding the office with several years worth of files along with two or three fat files marked miscellaneous caused some concern, but our volunteers made it happen. Our Trustees now have important documents available to them and we are working on the current year's files.

If I could only get some of our members to realize this is an office and not a storage unit, things would be great. Thanks again volunteers. You are the greatest!
